

Credit Cards and Credit Card Terminals (Swiping Machines)

The University of Florida units and departments may accept credit card for payment of services or you can outsource payment card processing to approved third-party vendors.

If you decide to accept credit cards at your Extension office you will need to establish a Credit Card Terminal (Swiping Machine).

The link below will guide you on how to get started as a credit card merchant.

How do I manage if I need a terminal when I don't have access to wifi and the internet?
