

As a UF IFAS Extension Business Administrator you embody all these roles to cultivate the passion, support and sustain the Extension mission to protect the long-term interests and quality of human life.

Build trust – being an advocate to execute the financial objectives of your respective counties and the mission of Extension and IFAS

Understand the financial nuances both in the County and within UF to promote moral, ethical and prudent decision-making.

Problem Solving, Clarifying purpose, Communicating effectively by being a thought both in the county and within Extension.

Participate in continuous professional development and support your peers in other counties. Solicit input from others because we all benefit from diversity of thought that comes from the 67 counties