

In Memoriam

Bert Harris Jr. 1919 – 2019

- WWII Veteran
- 26 years in UF/IFAS Extension
- 27 years in Florida House of Representatives
- Champion of private property rights
- Worked on citrus canker cases for growers
- Worked to meet the Greenbelt Law
- Citrus grower, rancher, and farmer

Luther Lynson Rozar, Jr. 1929-2018

- Korean Conflict Veteran
- Agriculture Agent in Pasco and Sarasota Counties

Fred Burkey (Farmer Fred)
1940-2019

Entrepreneur, 20-years as environmental horticulture agent in Martin County.

Dr. Karl Havens 1957-2019

- 2007-2019 - Director of the Florida Sea Grant College Program and Professor in the Department of Fisheries and Aquatic Sciences at the School of Forest Resources and Conservation
- Avid photographer and artist

Robert Bezelle Whitty 1934-2019

- Suwanee County Extension 1965-1971
- Martin County Extension 1971-1999

Kristen Poppell 1992-2019

Nassau County 4-H
Extension Agent

Jesse Godbold 1940-2019

- Clay County Extension Director for 25 years
- His high school FFA Jacket is one of only five in the Smithsonian Institution Museum of Natural History in Washington D.C.

Philip A Stansly, Ph.D. 1944-2018

- UF professor and international entomologist
- While working to combat citrus greening in Florida two years ago, Stansly earned the nickname “psyllid slayer.”

